2018 was the 60th Anniversary of the founding of Raimondi College and the old boys of the school decided to make a video and write a booklet on their founding school Supervisor and Principal Rev. Father Joseph Carra, PIME. For the background information on Father Carra, they went to Milan to dig up information on Father Carra. Father Carra was born on 20-2-1921 in Milan, Italy. He was a missionary in China between 1947-1953, when he arrived in Hong Kong. He founded Raimondi College in 1958 and became the co-chaplain of the Serra Club of Hong Kong in 1963.

A video showing the family members and close friends of Father Carra in Milan was shown, followed by pictures of the building of Raimondi College.

This was followed by a video of interviews from Serrans Michael Lau, Peter So, Peter Lee and Gregory Chan regarding Father Carra's work with the Serra Club of Hong Kong.

Father Carra passed away on 31-12-1991.

This interesting and well-researched talk was followed by sharing by Richard Tan, Joyce Chang, Michael Lau and Denis Chang.
